CATCH JOURNALS

Catch Publishing is proud to present its first collection of journals with something for everybody's taste. Art lovers, gardeners, cooks, travelers and the hip and trendy can write or draw their thoughts, dreams, adventures, and so much more in these beautiful journals.

Each journal is A5 in size and contains 32 pages of thinly lined paper. Both the front and back of the cover is printed in colour on 250 g/m<sup>2</sup> coated paper. They are custom made in the Netherlands.

Catch Publishing is an internationally renowned publisher of cards, calendars and wall art. Founded in 1981 and based in the historical city of Utrecht, the Netherlands, it also has subsidiaries in London and Philadelphia.

Originally specializing in black and white photography, first in contemporary images and later adding great vintage pictures. Catch still has some of the best photographic images in the market today.

From these original roots Catch has diversified into a multi faceted publisher of every conceivable art form. From contemporary Art to Renaissance faces, from African barber signs to Russian constructivist textiles, every imaginable subject in art, photography, fashion, design, advertising and illustration from around the world is reflected in the ever growing image library.

At first the most important products were posters and postcards but soon greeting cards were added and later calendars. In the last thirteen years since calendars were added to the program, Catch have built up an impressive archive of over 25,000 innovative and creative images with new ones being added daily.

Recent investments in digital printing presses means Catch can now offer a personalized publishing program of their archive as postcards, greeting cards, wall art and a range of gift items. Please don't hesitate to ask for our catalogues of available images.
